

Questions

Q1 - Assuming that we already have a Binary Search Tree with address root. Write a function to count total number of nodes and print it in the main function.

Q2 - Assuming that we have a Binary Search Tree. Write a function to count all leaf nodes.

Q3 - Using linked list, implement addition of two polynomials. Sum of polynomials should be stored using existing links.